

Advice from an Aunt and Nephew: ‘Ā’ishah & ‘Abdūllah b. Zubayr

Abū ‘Iyāḍ (حفظه الله)

- The family of ‘Abdūllah b. Zubayr (رضى الله عنهم).
- The battles he witnessed.
- Titles given to him and three things he could not be contended with.
- Three things that exemplify his great station.
- A brief look at the story of the assassination of ‘Uthmān (رضى الله عنه).
- The advice of ‘Abdullāh b. Zubayr (رضى الله عنهما) to Wahb b. Kaysān (رحمه الله).
- A beautiful parable regarding Taqwā mentioned in the Qur’ān.
- The physical manifestation of our deeds.
- Taking ourselves to account regarding the four things mentioned in the advice of Ibn Zubayr.
- The reason the Khawārij rebelled against and killed the Ṣaḥābah, and their false claims regarding them.
- How to identify a Khārijī.
- The first advice of ‘Ā’ishah (رضى الله عنها).
- The meaning of the abandonment of sins is du‘ā’.
- Some amazing benefits from Ibn al-Qayyim (رحمه الله) regarding abandoning sins and disobedience.
- The second advice of ‘Ā’ishah (رضى الله عنها).
- The way of the hypocrites in pleasing the people while angering Allāh.
- The outcome of angering the people while pleasing Allāh, and pleasing the people at the expense of angering Allāh.
- An example from the Companions (رضى الله عنهم) regarding the mighty benefit of being truthful to Allāh.